Campus Kitchens - UDM

"Campus Kitchens" is a national campus movement, which takes surplus food from the campus foodservice, prepares meals with it, and distributes it to people in need. They are in need of volunteers over the summer months, while most of the UDM students are away.

The need: 4-6 people each Saturday morning, 10:00am - 2:00pm, from May through early September. (Feel free to sign up for one or multiple Saturdays. Families Welcome!) The work is to help prepare food and deliver it.

Sign up directly at <http://ckudm.campuskitchens.volunteerhub.com>

Or if you have any questions, contact Sarah Casnovsky, the CKUDM summer volunteer coordinator at ckudm1@gmail.com.

Ignatian Volunteers

Ignatian Volunteers are men & women age 50 and over who are willing to share their skills, talents and life experiences with organizations that directly serve the poor or marginalized.

Volunteers work two days every week for a service agency. Local agencies include: Lighthouse, UDM Institute for Leadership & Service, SS Peter & Paul Warming Center, Loyola High School, Reggie McKenzie Foundation, Crossroads, Capuchin Youth Program, Detroit Cristo Rey High School, Children's Hospital, All Saints Neighborhood Center and Stephen Ministries.

During monthly meetings, volunteers pray and reflect on their experiences. They also meet every month with a spiritual reflector and attend an overnight retreat.

Jesuit Volunteer Corps

The Jesuit Volunteer Corps supports organizations that provide direct service to people who are poor and marginalized by placing volunteers in Detroit and around the world.

These idealistic, inquisitive, mission-minded Jesuit Volunteers bring energy and hope to the individuals and organizations they serve and gain valuable life skills, insights, and connections. During their service, they immerse in and reflect on four Catholic, Ignatian values: spiritual growth, simple living, community with other Jesuit Volunteers and those they serve, and the pursuit of social justice.
