

MAY 2015

Jesuit Alumni and Friends of Detroit

SAVE THE DATE!
OUR NEXT JAFD LUNCHEON IS
OCTOBER 21, 2015,
WITH FR. TIM KESICKI, S.J.

Father Kesicki is the newly appointed president of the Jesuit Conference, headquartered in Washington, D.C. His office enables him to provide us with an exciting overview of the dynamic developments among the Jesuits throughout the U.S. and beyond. The Conference promotes common goals and oversees international projects for the Jesuits' nine U.S. and Canadian provinces, and provides liaison staffing among the provinces, various national associations, and the Society's international headquarters in Rome.

"John Paul XXIII wanted to open the windows to the church. Francis wants us to open the doors and go out."

Thanks to Father Joe Daoust, SJ for his inspiring words about Pope Francis. Attendees at the May 6 luncheon were clearly moved with a renewed sense of hope for the Church. Thanks again Father Daoust.

JESUIT VOLUNTEER CORPS

The Jesuit Volunteer Corps supports organizations that provide direct service to people who are poor and marginalized by placing volunteers in Detroit and around the world. These idealistic, inquisitive, mission-minded Jesuit Volunteers bring energy and hope to the individuals and organizations they serve and gain valuable life skills, insights, and connections. During their service, they immerse in and reflect on four Catholic, Ignatian values: spiritual growth, simple living, community with other Jesuit Volunteers and those they serve, and the pursuit of social justice.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

IGNATIAN VOLUNTEERS

Ignatian Volunteers are men & women age 50 and over who are willing to share their skills, talents and life experiences with organizations that directly serve the poor or marginalized. During monthly meetings, volunteers pray and reflect on their experiences. They also meet every month with a spiritual reflector and attend an overnight retreat. Contact – Nick Sharkey at nicksharkey@comcast.net or 248-735-8148

CRISTO REY HIGH SCHOOL

Cristo Rey High School in Detroit. Cristo Rey uses volunteers as tutors. If interested, contact President Mike Khoury at MKhoury@DetroitCristoRey.org or 313-843-2747, extension 23.

LOYOLA INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

Help guide aspiring doctors, lawyers, automotive engineers or entrepreneurs of the future on the path to a successful career and the realization of their dreams. Companies in the Detroit area, partner with Loyola High School and make a difference in the lives of young men. IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY PROJECT

The Ignatian Spirituality Project is a Jesuit supported work and Ignatian ministry in Detroit that provides Ignatian retreats for people experiencing homelessness, who are in recovery, and moving out of homelessness. If you've been on an Ignatian retreat, you know what good it does. Can you imagine making this experience available to those who are finding their way out of homeless? The retreats draw on the best of Ignatian Spirituality, meeting the powerful work and spirituality of recovery. Detroit is part of a twenty-nine city network of retreat teams that provide the systematic, well-organized, local, and totally volunteer supported retreat programs. To join us or receive more information, please contact Danny Patton at dpatton411@gmail.com or call 313-405-3077.
